

If you can answer yes to the following questions, you may be eligible for resident tuition according to 110 ILCS 305/7e-5:

1. Did you reside with your parent(s) while attending a public or private high school in Illinois?

2. Did you graduate from a public or private high school or receive the equivalent of a high school diploma in Illinois?
 yes no

3. Did you attend school in Illinois for at least 3 years as of the date you graduated from high school or received the equivalent of a high school diploma?
 yes no

4. If you are not a citizen or permanent resident of the United States, will you provide the University of Illinois with an affidavit stating that you will file an application to become a permanent resident of the United States at your earliest opportunity?
 yes no

(Note: If the above criteria are all met, but you subsequently established a residence in another state before enrolling at the University of Illinois, you are not eligible for resident tuition under 110 ILCS 305/7e-5.)
